Query! ! !

My wife's great-grandfather, (father of Annie [Prince] MACE) was Thomas Jefferson BRANNAN, 1830-1894. He was a schoolteacher in Jackson Co. Ind. in 1850, but left Indiana for Missouri sometime in the early 1850's. Family tradition has that Thomas J. Brannan settled at a place called "Lott's Grove" somewhere in MO, but have not been able to locate such place. By chance has anyone heard of it? He married Aug. 01, 1858 to Almira Rogers, apparently in Pike Co., and are said to have joined a wagon train, for California in 1881, leaving Pike Co. Russell E. Bidlack - 1709 Cherokee Rd. Ann Arbor, Michigan 48104

GENEALOGY

Might Be - -

A certain motion-picture producer with social pretensions is said to have spent $25,000 in connection with his genealogy. He paid $5,000 to have it looked up, and $20,000 to have it hushed up.

A way to do it -

"I've got a pretty distasteful job before me," remarked the genealogist. "Mrs. Newrich employed me to look up her family tree and I've got to inform her that one of her relatives was electrocuted."

"Why worry about that?" asked his friend. "Just write that the man in question 'occupied the chair of applied electricity at one of our public institutions.'"

One exception -

Wife: "Didn't you say that you would go through fire and water for me?"

Husband: "Yes, but I'll be blowed if I am going through bankruptcy for you."

Just for laughs!

If you have a cute joke, send it in.

Ingram Cemetery

Ingram Cemetery is located in Pike County, Mo., one mile north of the intersection of roads O & PP (New Liberty Church), behind the barn in back of the old house on the Brandenburg Dairy Farm. There is a story that has been handed down through the owners of the dairy farm of a young girl that died of rabies who is buried in the cemetery. It was copied in November, 1975 by Mr. & Mrs. Floyd Stamps and Mr. & Mrs. Don Lotton. After cutting the brambles, etc. in the cemetery, most of the stones had to be dug up. The cemetery is in Hartford Township, East part, T.51N.-R.3W., in Section 36.
